

Highly talented Communications Manager for listed company growing 40% a year

Copenhagen, 4 July 2022

Are you an experienced communications talent looking for your next challenge in a growing company where you can take ownership and drive your area independently under guidance? Do you aim to become responsible for a complete communications structure, including Investor Relations and PR?

We are looking for you to join our team at our headquarters in Copenhagen, where you will work closely with top management daily.

We want you to take the enormous responsibility to achieve the goals set together with our experienced Marketing & Communications Director. We want to keep our investors informed and continually updated. We want our SoMe to be full of significant updates. We want the press to write about us and the work we do to digitalise all of Europe in WorkForce Management, specifically for retail and food service. How do we do that? We look forward to hearing your take on it!

If you are passionate about telling a story, bringing a message to the market, and driving market perception across Europe, we would love to talk to you.

Your ideal profile:

- You love to write, and writing geared towards a specific goal, whether it is information, conversion or brand building.
- You are bold and like to take chances and test limits.
- You take pride in the quality you deliver.
- You understand the psychology of those you write towards and love to drive perception.
- You love taking responsibility for the areas where you are confident and listening to advice where you are not.
- You like talking to the press and following up on press releases and press coverage in general.
- You have a high personal drive and take ownership of the area you are responsible for.
- You understand that communication is a clock-less job area where opportunities and obligations can arise at any time.

Your responsibilities:

- Together with the Marketing- and Communications Director, you will be part of setting the overall goals for the communication, both IR and PR.
- You will ensure that our message map is communicated to the world around us.
- You will write press statements that will wow and impress our investors and potential clients.

- You will write case stories where you will match the clients' experience with what is relevant to know for potential clients.
- You will write the management reviews in our financial reports.
- You will write company announcements and newsletters for our Investors.
- You will create and publish opinion pieces and other content on our webpage and SoMe.
- You co-create partner content together with our partner manager.

Mandatory qualifications

- Experienced writer
- Highly proficient in writing both English and Danish
- High personal drive and ambition

Optional qualifications

- Experience working with international brand communication and strategic marketing.
- Experience working with Investor Relations
